

Meet Your Williamson County GOP School Board Candidates

District 1

Tony Bostic

Tony Bostic moved to Franklin with his wife in early 2012, and welcomed their son Elijah in 2019. Growing up, Tony learned about the joys and struggles with the education system through his mother who was a teacher. He has worked as a Loan Officer for the last 8 years, while also co-owning a networking company called Connect Nashville Business Networking with over 16,000+ small business professionals in Middle TN. He and his family attend One Church Home in Fairview where he serves in the Worship Community and Men's Ministry.

<https://www.tonybostic.com/>

District 3

Dennis Driggers

Dennis Driggers is a retired U.S. Army officer, history professor, husband, father, grandfather, and lifelong conservative Republican. After his decades of service in the U.S. Army, Dennis moved with his family to Spring Hill in 2016, where he worked as a professor of United States and Tennessee history from 2017-2020 for the Middle Tennessee State University at Murfreesboro. Dennis and his wife are excited to be living near their son and grandkids, who attend Allendale Elementary School. As a soldier-scholar, Dennis knows education and how to get difficult things done.

<https://dennisdriggersforschoolboard.com/>

District 5

Dr. Margie Johnson

Margie Johnson is the first in her family to attend and graduate from college, where she obtained her doctorate degree in educational leadership. She has led a successful career as a middle school teacher, regional educational consultant, and district administrator. She is the parent of three sons and an active volunteer in the community and our schools. She is committed to bringing her wealth of expertise in education and passion for serving our community and its children as a school board member.

<https://www.drmargiejohnson.com/>

District 7

Angela Beaton

Angela Beaton is a 7th generation Tennessean who grew up in Hendersonville. She attended the University of Tennessee, Knoxville, and returned to the Nashville area to work in the banking and health insurance industries and Nashville Electric Service. She and her husband, Stuart, moved to Brentwood in 1999 with their four children all attending Williamson County public schools. She is a passionate volunteer in her community including tutoring at inner-city schools, sending care packages to members of our active military, and an active member of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

<https://angelabeaton.com/>

District 9

Claire Reeves

Claire Reeves and her family moved to Franklin in 2019. Claire holds five degrees in the field of Biology and spent years as a scientist conducting breast cancer research and teaching science writing. She is currently the VP of Education and Member Experience for a real estate education company. She has been an active volunteer at her three children's schools in various capacities, and in 2023 received a Shining Apple Award from the Williamson County Board of Education in recognition of her volunteer work at Pearre Creek Elementary. Claire and her family are active members of Rolling Hills Community Church.

<https://www.voteclairereeves.com/>

District 11

Tonja Hibma

Tonja Hibma is a wife, mother, grandmother, and a professional educator with 18 years of classroom teaching experience. Tonja and her husband, Ed, moved to Middle Tennessee with their children in 2006, with all three of their children attending and graduating from Williamson County Schools. As an educator and a parent, Tonja has seen first-hand the changes and challenges to our public education system. Tonja enjoys serving as a leader in her church and community, including as a Charter Representative on the American Heritage Girls board for Troop 4031.

<https://www.tonjahibma.com/>